EXPANSION SALE! JUST WATCH

We have rented the portion of the building occupied formerly by the Boston Shoe Store, and we will now occupy the entire lower floors of 417 and 419 Main Street, a floor space of 60x100 feet. The increase in our business the past season has reached such magnitude that our quarters are not large enough to accommodate the enormous stock we are going to carry, nor large enough to accommodate the large crowds that continually crowd our house. Our low prices, fair and courteous treatment hi won for us the confidence of the people. Their liberal patronage has more than convinced us of that fact, and now that have ventured and are annexing new territory, we shall more than ever strive to merit the good will of the public. Our dealing will be as fair, our treatment as good and our prices lower than ever before. And the principles which have characterized of establishment from all others in the city will be as strictly adhered to as heretofore; and that is, one and all are treated alike absolutely one and the lowest price for everybody. We make no distinction, POOR OR RICH. Whether you spend a hundre dollars or a single penny, your trade is just as much appreciated. This week the carpenters begin hammering in our store, noise which, though music to our ears, may not be pleasant for you, and for this we will compensate you. From tomorrow of the slaughter begins. All goods on hand must be closed out. Cost, profit, value, all, all, will be ignored. We must not have an inch of last season's goods to take in the new building. Everything must be brand new.

Owing to the building of new shelving and counters and general arrangement in the store, as also the finishing of marking down all the goods special for this sale, our store will not open for business tomorrow morning before 10:30.

BE ON HAND FOR THE BIG SALE.
